

St. Anne's school

Ballavara , Chikmagalore

St. Anne's school, Ballavara is located in Chikmagalore district in Karnataka. Our locality is multi-linguistic where the majority of people speak in Tamil, the rest in kannada, Konkani and Malayalam.

St. Anne's school is run by Sisters of charity of St. Anne. It was established in the year 2006. We have only one school in the state of Karnataka. English is the medium of instruction and the first language in the curriculum. The present strength of students is 450 this year. In 2022-23, SSLC batch was the 7th batch. We secured the 1st place in the block level. We move forward with the motto "Discipline for life and Education for knowledge".

