Nemisia Academy is an institution run by Sisters of Charity of St. Jeanne Antide Thouret. This institution is located in the Village called Harohalli, in Anekal Taluk. This congregation began in the year 1799 in France. Amidst the various mission, education is part of it from the very beginning. This school is the vision of Sr. Maria Rita Bossetti, a great missionary of our Congregation from Italy. She was the first delegate Superior and one of the pioneer of the congregation in India. This school started in the year 2017 with Kindergarten and is recognized with the ICSE Syllabus. Today we have till class IX. We strive to impart the education with faith and values. We too provide more attention in the extra-curricular activities in order to help the children to explore and to excel in their potentials.

Motto: To educate with love.

Vision: A heart for All: Transforming the life with love.

Mission:

- To sow the seeds of love
- To Assist them to explore and to excel their potentials
- To instill in them values of life to enhance the quality of life
- Towards the holistic development
