

Prema Mandira Canossa Society

Joseph's High School, which began in 1991 is run by Prema Mandira Canossa Society, which is the registered society of the Congregation of the Canossian Daughters of Charity. We are happy that our school has completed and celebrated its Silver Jubilee in the year 2015. The Motto of our school is “Arise and Shine” the students are called to wake up to shine to the truth and experience it in reality. Our School follow Karnataka state syllabus and it is known to impart education for the unprivileged, marginalized, schedule caste and with a preferential option for Girls. We provide English medium education and have brought a revolve to many change in our students and their parents.

The integral promotion of the person is geared towards making human beings aware of their dignity as Children of God and the urgency to build up a society that respects individual difference, pluralism of race, religion, language and culture. It has catered to the educational needs of the children living in and around Anekal Taluk without any religious preferences. This vision of our school is a accomplished through the committed and tireless service of our 50 staff members. At present, we have more than thousand children, who enthusiastically carry out their studies thus acquiring an all round development of their personality. Today more than 20,000 Josephites school alumni reside in many countries and territories and serve in a wide range of positions in the public, private and non-profit sectors.
