

SISTERS OF ST.JOSEPH OF TARBES

The Congregation of the Sisters of St Joseph of Tarbes was founded in the year 1843 in France, by six young girls who had a special experience of God, urging them to a life of Contemplation. Living together in communion they became sensitive to the needs of the people around and responded enthusiastically to their call to educate children. To extend this Mission we established Jeevandhara Educational Trust in the year 2004.

OUR VISION:

Rooted in our Charism of Trinitarian Communion, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Tarbes, radically share in the vision and mission of Jesus, "Father, may they all be one". (Jn. 17: 21)

Education Ministry

We the sisters of St. Joseph of Tarbes have formal and non-formal Education.. Most of our communities are engaged in Educational ministry. We also have Technical and Vocational Institutions ,in all our services we help students to be spiritually conscious, socially responsible and morally upright and help them to be enlightened human beings who can make a difference in the society.

Our thrust is Girls education, especially girls coming from economically weaker sections of the society.
