

AUXILIUM SCHOOL

History:

Auxilium School was founded in 1994 by “The Salesian Sister of Don Bosco.” It a minority institution established and administered by “Bangalore Auxilium Society” , primarily for the education of the Christian Community. But members of other communities are also admitted irrespective of caste and creed and their rights of conscience are respected.

The school follows the educative system of Don Bosco commonly known as preventive system, where the pupil is the protagonist of her/his own formation. The educative community consisting of parents, teachers, pupils and management, work together for the ‘holistic’ development of the pupil in a family atmosphere.

The school is affiliated to CISCE (Council for the Indian School Certificate Examination), following the ICSE curriculum.

There are 2413 students studying from Nursery to class X, and about 120 teaching and non teaching staff. Auxilium is able to provide quality education to the students of the locality with an affordable fee structure.

Students are provided with all the facilities, curricular and extracurricular activities.
